The AI phone host for restaurants

MEET BELLA

Never miss another booking.

Bella answers every call in a warm Australian voice and books the table straight into your diary — even when every line is busy and Friday service is flat out.

1

Forward your line

Five minutes with your phone provider. You keep your number — nothing to install, nothing for staff to learn.

2

Bella answers, 24/7

Warm Australian voice, tuned for local suburb names. Bookings land in your diary against real availability — no double-bookings.

3

You run the floor

Transcripts, call recordings and no-show tracking in your dashboard. If Bella isn't sure, she takes a message and flags your team.

WHAT YOU GET

Unlimited inbound calls

Every line, every time — no hold music, no menus.

Live bookings, no clashes

Straight into your diary against real availability.

Local Australian voice

Not an overseas call centre. Suburbs spelt right.

Privacy-first by design

Australian data residency. Privacy Act compliant.
