Things to try:

- “Can I book a table for six tonight at 7:30?”
- “Do you take group bookings for twenty people?”
- “What time do you close on Sundays?”
- “Can I change my booking to tomorrow instead?”

What just happened? Bella took that call exactly the way she'd take your customers' calls — with your menu, your hours, and your booking rules. Set up for your venue in days, free first week.
