

SMS Sender ID Register: application to register sender ID approved biteperk <vocotable@biteperk.com.au >

<no-reply@digital.acma.gov.au >

Tue, 18 Aug 2026 4:00:21 PM +1000

To "sam"<sam@biteperk.com.au>

Dear Sameer Kalaliya,

Your application to register the following sender ID for Biteperk Pty Ltd, submitted by Twilio Inc., has been approved by the Australian Communications and Media Authority.

- BitePerk

For more information about the register go to: SMS Sender ID Register | ACMA

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you may seek a reconsideration of the decision by the ACMA under subsection 558(1) of the Telecommunications Act 1997, by applying in writing to the ACMA and setting out the reasons for the reconsideration application. You must make an application for reconsideration within 28 days after you are informed of the decision (unless the ACMA extends the period).

If you have applied for a reconsideration and are still dissatisfied with the ACMA's decision, you may apply to the Administrative Review Tribunal for review of the reconsideration decision.

If you have any questions, please contact senderIDregister@acma.gov.au.

This decision has been made by the operation of computer programs.

Regards,
Australian Communications and Media Authority

The SMS Sender ID Register is a government initiative, operated by the ACMA. The register will reduce SMS/MMS scams that include sender IDs and establish a safer communications channel for the Australian community.

This email has been sent from an automated mailbox which is not monitored. Please do not reply.